

WORKSHOP

“THE FUTURE OF GLOBAL GOVERNANCE – BRAZIL IN THE GLOBAL CLIMATE CHANGE REGIME”

*Institute of International Relations
University of São Paulo (USP)
Sala da Congregação – FEA 1 – 1st floor*

São Paulo
Thursday, June 16th 2011

- 9:00h Welcome and Introduction
- Prof. Dr. Amâncio Jorge SILVA NUNES DE OLIVEIRA
Professor, University of São Paulo (USP)
- Michael HARVEY,
Counsellor, Canadian Embassy to Brazil
- 9:40h PANEL: Brazil in the Global Climate Regime: Putting National Interest and Global Structures in Context
- 11:15h PANEL: Energy Policy – A Key domestic driver for Climate Politics
- 14:30h PANEL: Technological Power on the Rise – The Case of Geoengineering

Confirmed speakers include Brazilian and Canadian scholars and experts, including:

- Prof. Dr. Kathy HOCHSTETLER, CIGI Chair of Governance in the Americas, Balsillie School of International Affairs (Canada)
- Prof. Dr. Eduardo VIOLA, Institute for International Relations, University of Brasilia,
- Dr. Jason BLACKSTOCK, Center for International Governance Innovation (Canada),
- Prof. Dr. Luiz Gylvan MEIRA FILHO, Institute for Advanced Studies, University of São Paulo
- Prof. Dr. Paulo ARTAXO, Institute of Physics, University of São Paulo

Contact: Oliver Stuenkel (oliver.stuenkel@fgv.br)